"Himself hath Done it."

Isaiah xxxviii. 15.

"Himself hath done it" all! O, how those words
Should hush to silence every murmuring thought.
"Himself hath done it"—He who loves me best—
He who my soul with his own blood hath bought.

Himself hath done it!" Can it then be aught
Than full of wisdom—full of tenderest love.
Not one unneeded sorrow will He send,
To teach this wandering heart no more to rove.

"Himself hath done it!" Yes, although severe
May seem the stroke, and bitter the cup,
'Tis his own hand that holds it; and I know
He'll give me grace to drink it meekly up.

"Himself hath done it." O, no arm but His
Could e'er sustain beneath earth's dreary lot.
But while I know He doeth all things well,
My heart his loving kindness questions not.

"Himself hath done it." He who searched me through
Sees how I cling to earth's ensnaring ties,
And so he breaks each reed on which my soul
Too much for happiness and joy relies.

"Himself hath done it." He would have me see
What broken cisterns human friends must prove;
That I may turn and quench my burning thirst
At His own fount of everlasting love.

"Himself hath done it." Then I fain would say—
Thy will in all things evermore be done;
E'en though that will remove whom best I love,
While Jesus lives I cannot be alone.

"Himself hath done it"—precious, precious words!
Himself—my Father, Saviour, Brother, Friend!
Whose faithfulness no variation knows—
Who, having loved me, loves me to the end!

And when, in His eternal presence blest,
I at His feet my crown immortal cast,
I'll gladly own, with all His ransomed saints,
Himself hath done it" all, from first to last!

Children Christians.

What is it to be a Christian? Practically answered, it is to obey Jesus and love him, and trust him and be evermore true to him. And precisely this the child can do more easily than the man. In fact, the Christian life itself is but transfigured childhood in Christ Jesus. Look at your little child! See how trustful he is! What unlimited faith he has in his father and mother! Why, he believes they can do anything. And whatever they say he believes it, though all the world say contrary. And then he has no anxiety about the future. He knows that his parents love him, and that they will feed him and take care of him; and why should he be troubled about the morrow? And so he lives on from day to day unanxiously, trustingly, hopefully, gleefully, with a simple, undisturbed heart, just because he is a little child, and lives with an unwavering confidence in the devotion of his parents. Precisely so is the new life in Christ Jesus, a glorified childhood, living in the Heavenly Father's protection and smiles, moulded by his rule, content with his love, unanxious for the future, feeling certain that the Father who took care of him yesterday will take care of him to-morrow. And this is the very best of piety.

Before a man can become a Christian he must come into the infantile state. Jesus took a little child and set him in the midst of them; and when he had taken him up in his arms, he said unto them: "Except you turn and become as little children you shall not enter the kingdom of heaven."

Therefore it is that, of all persons, little children are most likely to become Christians, and the younger the greater this likelihood. It is not in spite of their being young, but because they are young that their case is hopeful. The real wonder is, not that little children are converted, but that men and women are. The fact is simply this: Your little child, for the very reason that he is a little child is, of all persons, the most capable, because the most willing, to receive Christ and his salvation. When Jesus says to him, "You are a sinful little child," he believes it. When Jesus says to him, "I died on the cross that you might be saved," he believes that. When Jesus says to him, "Come to me, little one, with all your sins, and I will forgive you," he believes that, and comes and is forgiven.

And thus, while the man of maturer years is hesitating, and vacillating, and postponing, and arguing, and talking about moral inability, and election, and fear of falling from grace, and not feeling enough, and imperfections of church members, and what not, the little child jumps at the pardon which Christ offers, just because he is a little child, and believes everything Jesus says. "In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes; even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight."—George Dana Boardman.

CAROLINA TIMES.

R. P. WARING, Editor.

CHARLOTTE.

Monday, June 21, 1869.

We publish this morning a communication signed by "One of the People," to which we ask the attention of our readers. The writer, though a highly educated and intelligent gentleman, is not a lawyer, and hence he expresses the voices of the substantial men of all classes. It is an able article and should be read with interest by all.

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

NORFOLK, VA, June 16.

On Wednesday the 15th, according to appointment, we left Charlotte for the great excursion to Norfolk and Portsmouth. The party to which I had the pleasure of belonging, consisted of some dozen or more ladies and gentlemen of our city, and having first rate accomodations, enjoyed ourselves exceedingly, until within about seventy-five miles of Raleigh; having at each station to take in a large number, our coaches became jammed, and as usual, under suchc ircumstances, the gentlemen had to stand or sit as best they could. At 12 o'clock, P. M., we arrived at the 'city of Oaks,' where we found a train steaming up, and not quite so full, ready for the signal to leave. After some little delay, the train from Charlotte was attached to the one in waiting, and we were off again, having in all fourteen passenger cars filled to the utmost capacity On plunged the steam-horse, and being a little more comfortable, I lost myself in "sweet oblivion" until dawn, when it was announced that we were nearing Weldon; after a little watching and waiting, we stopped in front of the hotel; so great was the crowd, they were illy provided with such things as knives, forks, &c.; I managed however, with the assistance of the cutlery first invented by Adam and Eve, to make my breakfast. That being soon over, we left for the city of Norfolk.

And now for the the trip. Our train ran down to the wharf, where two elegant steamers, the Louisana and N. P. Banks, were waiting to carry us down to Old Point. As soon as all were on board, the cables were loosed, and we steamed off. I cannot describe it, as memories of the long old past, forced themselves upon me. In due time we reached Old Point, landed and visited Fortress Monroe. The troops were reviewed, and a great many evolutions gone through with, but to the great disappointment of the largest portion, we were not allowed to see our Mecca or in other words, the prison of our much honored chief, Jefferson Davis. In an hour and a half we turned our prows Norfolkward. As soon as we arrived at the wharf, we were met by the Marshals of the occasion, (whose names I did not learn) and a brass band, when after forming in ranks, two and two, we marched to the opera house where speeches were delivered by the following gentlemen: Maj. DeCorde, Mayor of the city, Col. J. W. Hinton, Judge Osborne, Maj. Jno. Graham and Col. Wm. Lamb, President of the Board of Trade of this city. All of the speeches were earnest and delivered with ease and grace.

The opera house was decorated with an inscription across the rostrum "Welcome North Carolinians," under which appeared the Virginia coat of arms with the motto, "sic semper tyrannis," From this was suspended from either side, two U. S. flags falling gracefully to the floor. After the speeches Col. Lamb invited those present, to repair to the Hall over Messrs. Burrus, Harrison & Co's. Banking House, to partake of the sumptuous feast which was prepared for their especial benefit.

Truly, Virginians deserve being called the most liberal, large hearted and hospitable people in the country.

I will let you hear more of the city and people in a few days.

R. H. A.

NORFOLK, Va., June 17.

Today I had the pleasure of meeting Col. Lamb, the hero of Fort Fisher, whose gallantry, displayed in defence of the soil of the Old North State, endears him to all her sons. He is, as before mentioned, President of the Board of Trade, as also of one of the City Banks. Through his polite attention, I was taken round to the Journal office and introduced to Col. Lewellen, Editor of that able paper.

On Thursday, I took a pleasant stroll through the City, and could but mark the vast capacity that Norfolk possesses for future growth and expansion. Professor Maury is right in designating this as by far the most eligible port on the Atlantic slope, and Norfolk as the future emporium, not only of the Middle and Southern States, but a successful rival of New York. On the completion of her railroad lines now under construction and the extension of the South Pacific route, all the rich freight of the East Indies seeking the Eastern cities, and Europe will be concentrated here; and just as that trade made Phœnicia, Tyre and Palmira of ancient, and the Dutch and Portuguese cities of modern times, rich and prosperous, so in a much greater degree will it do for Norfolk; and her brave, hospitable, noble and liberal-hearted people deserve all that a bounteous Nature has in store for them.

I am glad to know that many of the largest and most prosperous houses are owned by North Carolinians, and many more of the enterprising sons of the Old North State contemplate casting their lot with the destiny of the "city by the sea." Much better this, than going to New York or to the West. Why is it that many of our upper country merchants pass Norfolk by, and go to Baltimore and New York to make their purchases? Norfolk, from her position, is nearer than either of them to the sugar fields of Louisiana and the Indies, and to the coffee plantations of Brazil and Venezuela, and consequently, as a grocery market, has advantages over every other port in the United States. Our Charlotte merchants ought to stop here and price the goods before going further. It may be that the impression that the merchants here lack enterprise may account for this fact. While the Baltimore and New York merchants fill our State papers with advertisements, too little use is made by her merchants of that great lever, the Press.

Certain it is, that Norfolk has superior advantages over either of the above mentioned cities as a grocery market, and yet three fourths of our merchants buy these very articles north of here. We wish to see the "twin cities by the sea" wake up to the full measure of their advantages, and resolve to use all means to reap them to the full extent. With more business enterprise and go-aheadativeness, her honest, intelligent and liberal-hearted merchants will extend their trade into every nook and corner of the tier of States in which her Railroads bring them in connection.

I have enjoyed the trip exceedingly, and regret it has been so short as to allow but little time to extend my acquaintance.

R. H. A.

For the Times.

CABARRUS CO., June, 18.

The recent collision of the Supreme Court with the Bar of the State wears a more serious aspect than any other event which has occurred since the people were placed under the authority of the present Constitution. Tho' the true mind and heart of the State earnestly opposed the adoption of that instrument, there is a general disposition to acquiesce in its sanctions, and give it a fair trial, as a system of constitutional law. And hence the amazing abuse of power which strikes down an educated and enlightened class of men, and touches the popular heart with painful apprehension.

In the event the exigences of the country should require it, the enlightened popular mind looks, with confidence and hope, to the lawyers as a class from which must be drawn the champions of right, to wield their trenchant blades in defence of a Government of regulated liberty and law.

But what does this event mean? Will this exercise of power lessen the insecurity and uncertainty that now overhangs and disturbs the popular heart? If the Bench has not the support of an enlightened legal profession to impart dignity and force to its decrees, upon what element of truth and virtue will it rely to be upborne and sustained amid the ever-varying and capricious changes of the popular sentiment?

Will the Bench be more honorable or more secure if lawyers can be taught to speak only in the cautious whispers of trembling slaves?

Now that the Judges are elected by the people, will the object of the popular choice be always wise and pure?

And will no mountebank ever reach the Bench, who may sully its ermine and prove that he is as utterly unfit for the high places of judicial power as the Emperor's horse was unfit to be Consul at Rome?

But doubtless there are sages who think, and think that the wisdom of the unorganized masses is a sufficient guarantee against any such contingency. In any event, the real people of the State feel a profound anxiety on this question, and earnestly deprecate the ostracism of an enlightened and educated Bar.

"ONE OF THE PEOPLE."

STATE NEWS.

The case of Mr. Alexander Mitchell against the Seymour and Blair Club, for the recovery of $26 due the plaintiff, was before Justice Berry, yesterday, and was decided against the Club.—Journal of Commerce.

We learn that Col. Wm. Johnston and other gentlemen, will certainly enter upon the appointments made for them to address the people at the different times and places, the subject being the importance of building the Plaster Banks and Salt Works Railroad, from Statesville to the Virginia line, at the earliest practical period. The appointments begin with Statesville, Monday 14th instant. The people have a deep interest in this matter, and let them attend in number and hear the speakers.—Statesville American.

CHILD SHOT.—A colored child, aged about three years, whose name we could not learn, was accidently shot yesterday in a house near the Zion A. M. E. Church, corner of Seventh and Nun streets, by a boy of about eight years. The wound was purely accidental and was inflicted by a pistol which the boy was examining at the time. It entered the back of the child, passing through the right lung and coming out at the side. The wound was examined and dressed by Dr. J. F. Ertkenker, who pronounces it dangerous.—Wil. Journal.

PLANTS STOLEN.—The flower garden of a resident of this city was entered Wednesday night, last and a quantity of plants stolen. The thieves evidently understand their business, as the plants were taken up in a skillfull manner.—Wil. Journal.

L. P. Olds. Esq., has been tendered by Gov. Holden, the appointment of Attorney General of North Carolina. Mr. Olds has accepted the appointment. The appointment is a good one and will be acceptable to the people.—Raleigh Standard.

As an example of what North Carolina is capable of doing, the Reconstructed Farmer states that 'tea' can be raised in this State and that Mrs. Patrick Edmundson, of Scotland Neck, Halifax county, in this State, has for many years raised her own tea; simply by roasting it over the fire, and drying it so that it keeps in a close metallic vessel without loosing its aroma. Those who are connoisseurs in this article, have pronounced her tea as fine as any imported from the "flowery Empire."—Raleigh Standard.

LITERARY LEGISLATORS.—We have come into possession of two literary gems, being epistolary productions of two members of our Legislature, one of them a member of the Senate; the other, of the House of Representatives. How we came into possession of these documents is nobody's business but the author's, and we can satisfy them on the subject whenever they desire it. We have the original manuscript of each, laid away carefully and subject to order.

The first is the production of Mr. Epps, of Halifax county, Senator, and read as follows:

"Sister mary i Wood have sent your by your husband if i had known when he was Goin G to leve you Just buse him for me but dont you hurt your Self in so doing you offection brothear. HENRY EPPS."

What it was that Henry was doing to send to "Sister Mary" by her husband, the manuscript does not inform us.

The next is from Coffee Mayo, it is more of a business order. It is as follows:

"Mr. Mallory i have pade thet fifteen dollars witCh you rote to me to do and hav take reCeet from the EaGant you Can Get you brankruptsy at any time i would hav due it beb fore know but i Coodent Get the mones enoGoxney anathesing more at Present but remain friend Cuffee Mayo."

And these are North Carolina's law-makers! Holden's pets, Lassiter's colleagues and many a Rad's superior!—Raleigh Sentinel.

Business men and capitalists would find it to their advantage to call at the office of Caldwell & Brenizer, and examine the Perpetual Insurance plan of the Liverpool & London & Globe Fire Insurance Company Assets $17,000,000. May 19 1m.

ENAMELING.

What it is and how it is done.

From the New York Sun.

Among the mysteries of the feminine toilette, which, from time to time, distract the minds of philosophers, there is none so difficult to learn anything about as enameling But what is enameling? We answer frankly that we don't know. It is reported that there is such an art, and that by its means a woman with a harsh or even disordered skin, and a bad complexion, may be endowed with a smooth and perfect skin, and a complexion of dazzling beauty. How is this done? Is it done at all? We know not. Yet we have occasionally met in society ladies of extraordinary charms, and sometimes of great social distinction, who were said by others to have been enameled, and to have passed through such a transformation from ugliness to beauty.

The word enamel, in ordinary use, signifies to apply a coating of smooth, glassy substance to the surface of glass or metal, and to fix it there by baking, in a heat so intense that the coating and the surface beneath it become fused together. Such baking and melting are clearly not applicable to the human skin; and yet we have been told by those ladies who were pointed out as enameled were characterized by a preternatural smoothness and hardness on the surface of their faces and necks, in appearance not unlike porcelain. The hypothesis then is, that human enamelling consists in the fastening of a thin and delicate paste or porcelain covering upon the exterior of the face and neck. How this is done is not known; otherwise it would be easy to tell what is enameling.

That the process is not inexpensive would appear from a recent affidavit of the notorious Madame Rachel, the enameler in London, who states that when in May, 1866, she was called upon to enamel Mrs. Borrodaile, her fee was a thousand guineas besides a gift of fifty pounds which she always requires her customers to give to the poor—in all, about $7,000 in our money. For one thousand guineas Mrs. Borrodaile gave an acceptance, and the fifty pounds in charity she undertrok to dispense for herself, and the work was done accordingly. When she came into her hand, Madame Rachel affirms that Mrs. Borrodaile had only a few patches of rusty gray hair, and her head and face were disfigured by an eruption; now her skin is beautiful, and she has a head of beautiful, soft, curly blonde hair.

It is so manifestly for the interest of a charlatan like Madame Rachel, to make the credulous believe that there is some secret artificial method by which a fright of a woman may be converted into a fairy, that her testimony is of no value in solving the great question. What is enameling? It is very probable that it is nothing but a delusion practised upon fools, and that there is really no such thing But, on the other hand, we have the very general belief in its reality, founded upon the alleged fact that some ladies have suddenly gained a kind of delicately tinted, smooth, metalic though apparently not inflexible skin, very unlike that which they had previously possessed. How did they obtain it? And how do they keep it? We ought to add that one of the prevailing superstitions about these ladies is, that they cannot wash their faces, but have to wipe off with a soft cloth, but slightly moistened, the surface of the enameled parts. Also, that they have to be very careful how they arrange their faces when they go to sleep. What a horrible idea! And how little is such artificial sad precarious beauty to be envied!

GOOD JOKE ON SNYDER.—Some over zealous patriot who never saw a Confederate flag, for the reason, that he belonged to that noble army of martyrs that stayed at home and sent all his own and wife's relations to the war, imagined that a Bremen flag stretched across the street on Wednesday, from Bottimore, Marrow & Co.'s, on Main street, during the reception of the excursionists from North Carolina, was a Confederate flag, and off he went to report the case to the military authorities. He only had his trouble for his pains, and was walked off on his ear, when the nationality of the suspicious bunting was explained to him. What a cid that flag must be to some trundle bed rangers; particularly those who never did a day's duty, or lost night's rest for anything but themselves. Poor devils!—Newbern Times.

THE FIRST STEP.—A young lady has been selected to read the Declaration of Independence on the Fourth of July in Boston. The next step will be for the Boston young ladies to make a declaration of another and more tender sort, to-wit: "Augustus Adolphus, I love thee; wilt thou be husband of mine?" No doubt Gus will reply that he willeth.

TRAVELING DRESSES.—Linen traveling dresses are made with double skirts. The two skirts are sacque, being trimmed with a plaited flounce. Some with single skirt and polonnaise have a wide plaited flounce headed by a bias stripe—which is finished on both sides by folds of striped black and white cambric muslin. The polonnaise is looped in the back with a stylish bow.

REMARKABLE TELEGRAPHIC DISPATCH.—As an evidence of the wonderful facility in the transmission of the mails between distant parts of the world afforded by intimate railway connections of modern times, we note the receipt of private letters in this city from the Turkish capital (Constantinople) yesterday, of date 28th ultimo—a distance of about six thousand miles.—Balt. Sun, 16th.

Sterne, who used his wife very ill was talking to Garrick, in an exuberance of sentimentality, in praise of conjugal love and fidelity. "The husband," said he, "who behaves unkindly to his wife, deserves to have his house burned over his head." "If you think so," said Garrick, "I hope your house is insured."

LOCATED.—Flibbertigibbet is a new English magazine that is announced for the avowed purpose of proclaiming war to the knife against humbug, snobbery, jobbery, corruption, sensationalism, sensualism, extremes and extravagance. What a fine opening there is for some half dozen Flibbertigibbets in Washington, D. C. under the new regime.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

General Debility is Nature's Appeal for Health.

Thousands of persons, without any specific ailment, are the victims of languor and lassitude. The unthinking are apt to confound this species of inertion, with laziness; whereas it usually arises from a want of organic energy, for which the subjects of it are no more responsible than the near-sighted are for their defective vision. Such persons, although they may be free from pain, are as truly invalids, and as much in need of medical aid, as if they were tormented with the pangs of acute disease. They require a TONIC and ALTERATIVE, that will rouse and regulate their torpid organizations. In cases of this kind, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS produce an immediate and most favorable effect. The debilitating and despounding valetudinarian, who feels as if he were but half alive; who shuns company, and has no relish either for business or pleasure, is metamorphosed, by a brief course of this most potent vegetable invigorant, into quite a different being. The change effected by the BITTERS, in a bodily and mental condition, is a surprise to himself and to his friends. He no longer, the active principle of life, which seemed to have died out of him, is re-awakened, and he feels like a new man. Remembering that debility is not only an affliction itself, but an invitation to disease, no time should be lost in recruiting the broken down system with this choicest and most potent of all TONICS AND NERVINES.

ASIATIC CHOLERA.

The Strongest Proof of Intrinsic Merit.

DEAR SIRS:—I ought to have acknowledged long ago the box of Pain Killer you had the goodness to send me last year. Its coming was most providential. I believe hundreds of lives were saved, under God, by it. The Cholera appeared here soon after we received it. We resorted at once to the PAIN KILLER, using as directed for Cholera. A list was kept of all to whom the Pain Killer was given, and our native assistants assured us that eight out of every ten to whom it was prescribed, recovered. It has, too, been very useful in various other diseases. It has proved an incalculable blessing to multitudes of poor people throughout all this region. Our native preachers are never willing to go out on their excursions without a supply of the PAIN KILLER. It gives them favor in the eyes of the people, and access to families and localities by whom otherwise they would be very indifferently received.

Believe me, dear sirs, gratefully and faithfully yours, J. M. JOHNSON.

Kyle, known the country over as one of the best caterers to be found anywhere.—It is entirely superfluous for us to say a word in commendation of the waters of these Springs; they are fully recognized as the most valuable in the mountains, and are yearly sought by the invalid as well as the person in search of pleasure, that they are under the management of friend Kyle is sufficient guarrantee that they will be well kept, and that the eating department will be all right.

A MAN WHO COULD'T LIVE ON A MILLION A YEAR.—The walls of Paris are at this moment covered with bills announcing the sale of the picture gallery belonging to Count Konchelleff Besborodko. It is said to be the last remnant left—and it belongs to creditors—of the magnificent estate of which he entered into possession just nine years ago. It then was valued at $11,250,000 in gold. He traveled through the East, Southern and Western Europe, in great state. There was no whim he refused to gratify. He chartered a steam ship to convey him from one point to another. He had special railway trains for his party. He gave princely entertainments, was lavish of presents. He had a numerous retinue. It was his sister who married Mr. Douglas Home, the medium. It was he who carried Alex. Dumas to Russia. Nine years ago he was master of $660,000 annual income. It was not enough for him. He could not live on less than $1,200,000 a year—his expenses several years ago said to have exceeded this amount of money—and now nothing remains of it all that wealth but debt.

ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS,
VA.
OPEN MAY 15th.
This favorite and celebrated summer resort is now in complete order for the reception of guests.—Some important improvements have been added to the buildings since the establishment passed into the hands of the present proprietor, and it is his purpose to keep it in a style not surpassed anywhere in Virginia.
The remarkable medicinal and curative power of the water is well known to the medical profession and to the springs going public. As an ALTERATIVE, A DIFFUSIVE STIMULANT, AND TONIC.
There is no known mineral water equal to it. In all anoemic conditions of the system, and broken down states of the constitution, loss of appetite, and general nervous prostration, its powers and virtue as a restorative may be safely pronounced to be without a known rival among the mineral waters of the world. They are ESPECIALLY INDICATED in the various cases as ailments peculiar to the female constitution.
The Proprietor will have provided for the Lawn and Ball Room a first-class BAND OF MUSIC, and in general, all the sources of amusement and recreation, usually found at our best summe resorts, will be at the command of the guests at Rockbridge Alum.
The place is within 11 to 12 hours of Richmond, Washington, Baltimore and Lynchburg, by rail, ALL IN DAYLIGHT. Passengers leave the cars of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad at Goshen Depot, and new and elegant stage coaches, passing rapidly over a smooth and level road at only eight miles, set down the visitors at the Springs to tea.

Organization of the Catawba Valley Land Company.

As the Incorporators, it is with pleasure we announce to the public the organization of the Catawba Valley Land Company. With a full Board of Directors, and a full corps of competent and reliable officers we predict a brilliant future and successful career for this useful and benevolent institution.

In appearing then before the people of this and other States as candidates for public patronage, it is but due to the opinion of those whose confidence and esteem we hope to merit, that some at least of the objects had in view by the Incorporators of this company should be made known. It is not, however, the purpose here to enter into details and to elaborate the many reasons which induced its friends to ask of the Legislature of North Carolina the present charter with its liberal and benevolent provisions; sufficient to say, that one great and prominent question kept constantly before their eyes, was, as to the best means to be adopted by which the large and profitless surplus of our landed interest could be disposed of in the shortest period of time and to the greatest advantage to our people and State.—This we may say was the main reason which led to the application, and the one most apparent to the inquisitive investigations of every curious inquiring mind. Impoverished as our people have been by the results of a terrible and disastrous war, with little else left them to call their own except their wasted lands, with comparatively no market for these by the ordinary mode of conveyancing, with limited capital to supply the wants of business, the great and growing scarcity of money, and the reluctance of immigration to seek among us pleasant homes and fertile farms, we have been induced to ask of a generous Legislature the present mode of disposing of real estate. We have, we are pleased to say, every encouragement for believing that our plan will be successful; alike remunerative to the friends of the enterprise, and beneficial to our charitable and educational institutions by contributing as required by the charter a portion of our revenues in aid of the Poor and School Funds of the State. The friends of this enterprise are well aware of the prejudice that has long existed in the minds of our people against lotteries, and in many instances not without good reason.—Appreciating therefore the difficulties with which they will necessarily for a time be called upon to contend, they have endeavored by the selection of gentlemen of known character and integrity as officers to fill the different departments to quiet the apprehensions of the scrupulous and incredulous. In this respect at least they can now flatter themselves that they have been exceedingly fortunate in procuring the services of such old and well known citizens as Messrs. W. F. Davidson and A. H. Martin to fill the important offices of President and Treasurer. This announcement will be at once an earnest to the public of an anxious and settled determination on the part of the company to carry out to the letter the provisions of their charter, and to discharge faithfully all trusts confided to their keeping and management. The granting of lottery powers in this State is by no means a novelty much less an innovation upon the history of our legislation. An act was obtained appointing four Commissioners in Wilmington in the year 1760 for the purpose of raising funds by the exercise of lottery powers, to be expended in furnishing two churches in the Parishes of St. James and St. Phillips, in the county of New Hanover. Another act was also obtained in or about the year 1836, for the purpose of supplying the necessary funds with which to erect a Masonic Hall at Hillsboro. These enterprises were managed by, and received the approval of the most prominent and influential men of their day and time in the State. A charter therefore to enable our people to dispose of the surplus of their lands with greater facility and certainty, and to convert their dead capital into active, available and profitable means, cannot be looked upon if properly managed, otherwise than as a powerful lever in developing the resources of the State, adding wealth to the depleted coffers of our poverty stricken people, and as a benevolent and charitable institution contributing to the intellectual culture of the rising generation, and aiding in ameliorating the suffering condition of a large and unfortunate class of our citizens, who have been reduced to a state of almost hopeless pauperism. The operations of this Company, carrying out the objects contemplated in the charter as may be hereafter seen in the arrangements of their schemes and plans of distribution, will be confined exclusively to the disposal of real estate by the sale of certificates, and no prizes other than simple prizes for realty, or optional prizes based on realty, will be incorporated in any scheme or awarded at any distribution. From the character of the men placed at the head of the affairs of this Company, the country has a guaranty that the purposes for which it has been incorporated will be strictly adhered to, and public confidence not misplaced or abused. Hoping therefore by a uniform system of integrity and fair dealing to commend this institution to the favorable consideration of the public, we respectfully refer all persons desirous of making sales of their real estate through the agency of this company to the President's advertisement which will be found below.

Respectfully,

H. M. PRITCHARD,
JOHN PHELAN,
S. C. BARNETT,
E. A. McLEOD,
W. W. GRIER,
S. W. DAVIS,
Incorporators.

Catawba Valley Land Company

Desirous of arranging at the earliest possible day, a scheme for the first distribution, notice is now given to all persons wishing to dispose of their lands or other real estate, through the agency of this Company, to file at once with the President, bonds for titles. No lands or other property will be entered for sale unless the titles are clear and unincumbered, and in all cases when necessary, the acknowledgement of the wife must be had. Properties will not be taken at extravagant or fabulous valuations, and before entering the same on the books of the company for sale, a small entrance fee will be required of each person to be paid.

LARGE DIVIDEND OF INSURANCE.

The Piedmont Life Insurance Company, of Virginia, has DECLARED A DIVIDEND OF FORTY PER CENT.

on its Life Policies, which have paid two annual premiums, and the same is available on such policies at next renewal to absorb loans, or reduce cash payments.

The dividend could have safely been larger, but with the

PRUDENCE AND CAUTION

which has ever guided this company, it has deemed it proper to hold a surplus beyond the reserve fund.

The company is now only in the eighteenth month of its active operation—yet

HAS ISSUED 3,000 POLICIES

which is a success really remarkable, and far ahead of any company of like period in America or Europe; while its handsome dividend shows the economy of its administration, and the

S. B. SEXTON'S CELEBRATED

for Anthracite or Bituminous coal, have been in successful operation for the last ten years, and have proved to be the best Fire-place Heaters manufactured and put in operation. They are getting to be generally used, often in the place of furnaces, for heating the lower and upper rooms in dwellings and offices. Two or three Stoves heating the largest dwellings, and besides, are quite ORNAMENTAL and ILLUMINATING, having all the beauty and cheerfulness of an open grate fire, but are more ECONOMICAL, CLEANER, and RADIATING A LARGER AMOUNT OF HEAT. We can refer to thousands of families who have them in use.

We manufacture our own COOKING STOVES, and we guarantee them to be equal to any sold for baking and cooking. We have Stoves to take in long wood and with large ovens, and are superior Stoves for baking. We are getting out some new patterns of Cooking Stoves, that will burn Bituminous coal, hard coal, or wood. They will have a beautiful finish, and will stand among the No. 1 Cook Stoves. Our Cooking Stoves are Baltimore made, and we guarantee the plates. Our Cooking Ranges are pronounced the best and cheapest in the market.—Baking of all kinds can be done in our Ranges as quickly and equally as well as in a Brick oven. We will manufacture S. B. SEXTON'S new patent Hot-Air Furnaces, warranted to burn from 50 to 70 hours with once filling.

Thankful to our friends and the public for their past favors, we solicit a continuance of their patronage.

W. N. FRATHER, & CO.

We desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of snuff generally, that since the war, certain tobacco manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged, to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks, so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them; as they are the losers thereby. It will be found upon comparison that Lorillard's Snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of the many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Snuff Snuff (High Toast), or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.
P. LORILLARD, New York.
